Patio, 791/I
sedia \ chair

Patio si distingue per la forma ergonomica ed essenziale della struttura in frassino, che sembra abbracciare la seduta e lo schienale, creando una geometrica gabbia alla quale le parti imbottite, in tessuto o pelle, si appoggiano.

Patio stands out for its ergonomic and essential shape, which seems to embrace the seat and back, creating a geometric cage supporting the fabric or leather upholstered parts. The chair and armchair are also available in the synthetic rope woven backrest version.
