

Lotus, 843/I
sedia \ chair

Sedia caratterizzata da schienale, seduta e gambe imbottite, Lotus è ideale per arredare un salotto, uno studio e per accompagnare ogni tavolo da pranzo. L'altissima qualità sartoriale emerge nel rivestimento realizzato, in tessuto o pelle, in modo da assecondare la silhouette della sedia e nella cucitura perimetrale a coda di topo in colore a contrasto.

Il pratico schienale forato la rende inoltre facilmente maneggevole.

A chair characterized by a fully upholstered backrest, seat and legs. The chair can be conveniently integrated into different context: a living room, an office and even a dining table. The exquisite tailoring stands out in the details of the fabric or leather upholstery that enhance the design of the chair, as well as in the seamed contrasting piping. The hole on its back structure makes it easy to handle the chair.
