MATÉGOT COLLECTION

1954

Designed by Mathieu Matégot

The Matégot collection welcomes the newest addition; the Matégot lounge table.

Joyful design with iconic status

Mathieu Matégot's designs are organic and have touches of light to create a joyful sense to their ambience. Matégot crafted contemporary designs by using techniques that was highly innovative and groundbreaking in the 50's. GUBI proudly keeps the legacy of Mathieu Matégot alive and strive to enhance and extent his vision, latest by adding his 1960 lounge table to the collection.

Matégot lounge table was designed in harmony with the changing design style of its period. The table is part of a new style investigation of Matégot since he moved on from his colourful and playful aesthetics of the 1950's, away from focusing on the use of perforated metal. Therefore, the Matégot lounge table is part of a more sophisticated register that Matégot designed until 1963.

Mathieu Matégot

Hungarian designer and architect, Mathieu Matégot (1910 - 2001), is one of last century's most renowned designers with an innovative outlook on craftsmanship. His designs are organic and have touches of light to create a joyful sense to their ambience. Matégot crafted contemporary designs by using techniques that were highly innovative and groundbreaking.

He was the first person to combine metal tubing with perforated sheet metal; ritigulle, a technique he patented and also a pairing that particularly characterizes his work.
